

they sing, move, and sign and have fun together while helping their children develop an enthusiasm for learning.

In both the videos, each song is performed by groups of children in a group setting or within the context of the song or rhyme. At the beginning of each song, children introduce the basic sign vocabulary. Since the sign vocabulary is introduced as name signs and not finger spells, there can be easy transition of the signs to other songs and languages. Teachers of WLOE (World Languages Other Than English) will find these videos a great resource for signs to use as gestures in the language class and for TPR (Total Physical Response) activities. Music teachers will also find the We Sign collection an excellent library of songs to use at school concerts and events.
